

Recruitment and Retention Working Party

‘There is no recruitment crisis in London’

- Decline in applications to train
- Decline in teachers applying for positions
- Teachers leaving Barnet mid career
- Extremely high cost of advertising positions for little gain

Recruitment and Retention Working Party

Meets half termly

Made up of members from schools, Teaching Alliances, NUT, housing and parking

Projects and successes so far:

- Recruitment and retention survey
- New jobs website providing cheaper advertising opportunities:
www.schooljobnetwork.co.uk
- NQT Pool
- Barnet Careers Fair
- Visiting universities teaching fairs
- Posting on university careers boards
- Parking permits for key schools
- Increasing incentives to work in Barnet:– (gym memberships, partner estate agents, information about housing opportunities , linking up NQTs)

Barnet Teaching Fair

Wednesday 27th January

5-7pm

The Compton School

Three talks:

- Why it is great to teach in Barnet
- Routes into teaching
- How to successfully secure your first teaching position

STALLS

- School job Network
- NQT Pool
- NQT Support and Development
- Teaching Alliances (Compton, BEYA, Northgate)
- BPSI
- Housing
- Parking
- NUT
- National college