Spirited Arts Competition

Entries from schools are invited to NATRE's Spirited Arts competition

The closing date is July 31 2016

Teachers can visit the NATRE website for past competition entries to inspire their pupils and use in RE lessons. There are also examples of discussion questions, teaching and learning approaches, along with subject knowledge to get pupils thinking along the right lines and create excellent entries.

Picturing Christianity

A new resource Picturing Christianity provides 24 beautiful images and works of art chosen from global Christian sources. The pack contains a book, CD-ROM and 24 double-sided picture cards that each include teaching resources and learning activities. It is currently on sale for £40 from RE Today's website.

A joint NATRE, AREIAC and AULRE conference - Words Beyond Words: Inspiring Religious Literacy

This will be running on 8 and 9 October 2016 in Blackburn.

It has been designed to bring together the wide RE community from classroom teachers to inspectors, ITTs to renowned academics and everyone in between.

Words Beyond Words will explore religious literacy, good practice of RE and address subject knowledge needs for all key stages. For the latest information on speakers, or to book, visit:
